

Workplace Recovery

That unforeseen disaster scenario has finally happened, your offices have been severely damaged or destroyed and you urgently need a place to set up your team and get to grips with re-starting the day-to-day processes that keeps your business running.

A workplace recovery package helps secure your business in times of emergency and natural disasters. If access to your usual workplace is interrupted for any reason, Custodian can accommodate you within our fully furnished, highly connected flagship site in Kent, increasing your resilience and helping you to achieve compliance at a low cost, all you need to supply is your laptop.

Contention for these places is 10:1, however we only allow one client per postcode area.
